

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF OHIO
WESTERN DIVISION AT DAYTON

CARRIE GOLDEN,

Plaintiff,

Case No.: 3:19-cv-64

vs.

COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY,

District Judge Thomas M. Rose
Magistrate Judge Michael J. Newman

Defendant.

ORDER AND ENTRY: (1) GRANTING DEFENDANT'S MOTION FOR VOLUNTARY REMAND (DOC. 15); (2) REMANDING THIS CASE TO THE COMMISSIONER UNDER THE FOURTH SENTENCE OF 42 U.S.C. § 405(g)
FOR FURTHER PROCEEDINGS; AND (3) TERMINATING THIS CASE ON THE COURT'S DOCKET

This Social Security disability benefits appeal is presently before the Court on Defendant's motion for voluntary remand to the Commissioner for further administrative proceedings pursuant to the Fourth Sentence of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g). Doc. 15. Pro se Plaintiff did not file a response to the Commissioner's motion, and the time for doing so has expired. Based upon Defendant's motion, and for good cause shown, IT IS ORDERED THAT: (1) the ALJ's non-disability finding is found unsupported by substantial evidence, and Defendant's motion for voluntary remand (doc. 15) is GRANTED; (2) this case is REMANDED to the Commissioner under the Fourth Sentence of 42 U.S.C. § 405(g) for further proceedings; and (3) this case is TERMINATED upon the Court's docket. The Clerk is ORDERED to enter judgment accordingly.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Date: October 23, 2019
